

FACT OR FICTION

How much do you know about fatbergs?

Have a look at the statements below, some of them are FACT (true) and others are FICTION (false)
Cut out the boxes below and put them under the right place in the table (on the next page).

1) Used cooking oil should be left to cool and then poured into a container and put in the bin. This is a job for adults.

2) If you add washing up liquid to used cooking oil it's ok to put down the sink.

3) When our sewer pipes get blocked it causes a very unpleasant sewer flooding somewhere. This could even happen in your home!

4) Fatbergs are created in our sewer pipes when people put fats oils and greases down the sink.

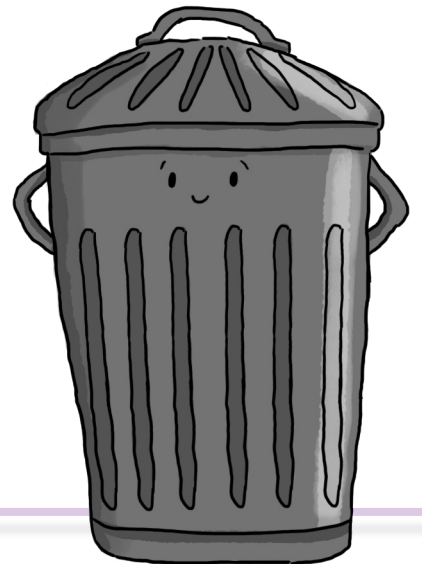

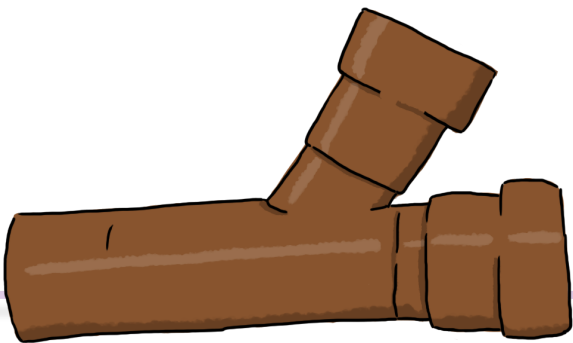

5) The biggest fatberg found so far was in London. it weighed 130 tonnes and was 250 metres long.

6) Organic cooking oils are ok to put down the sink.

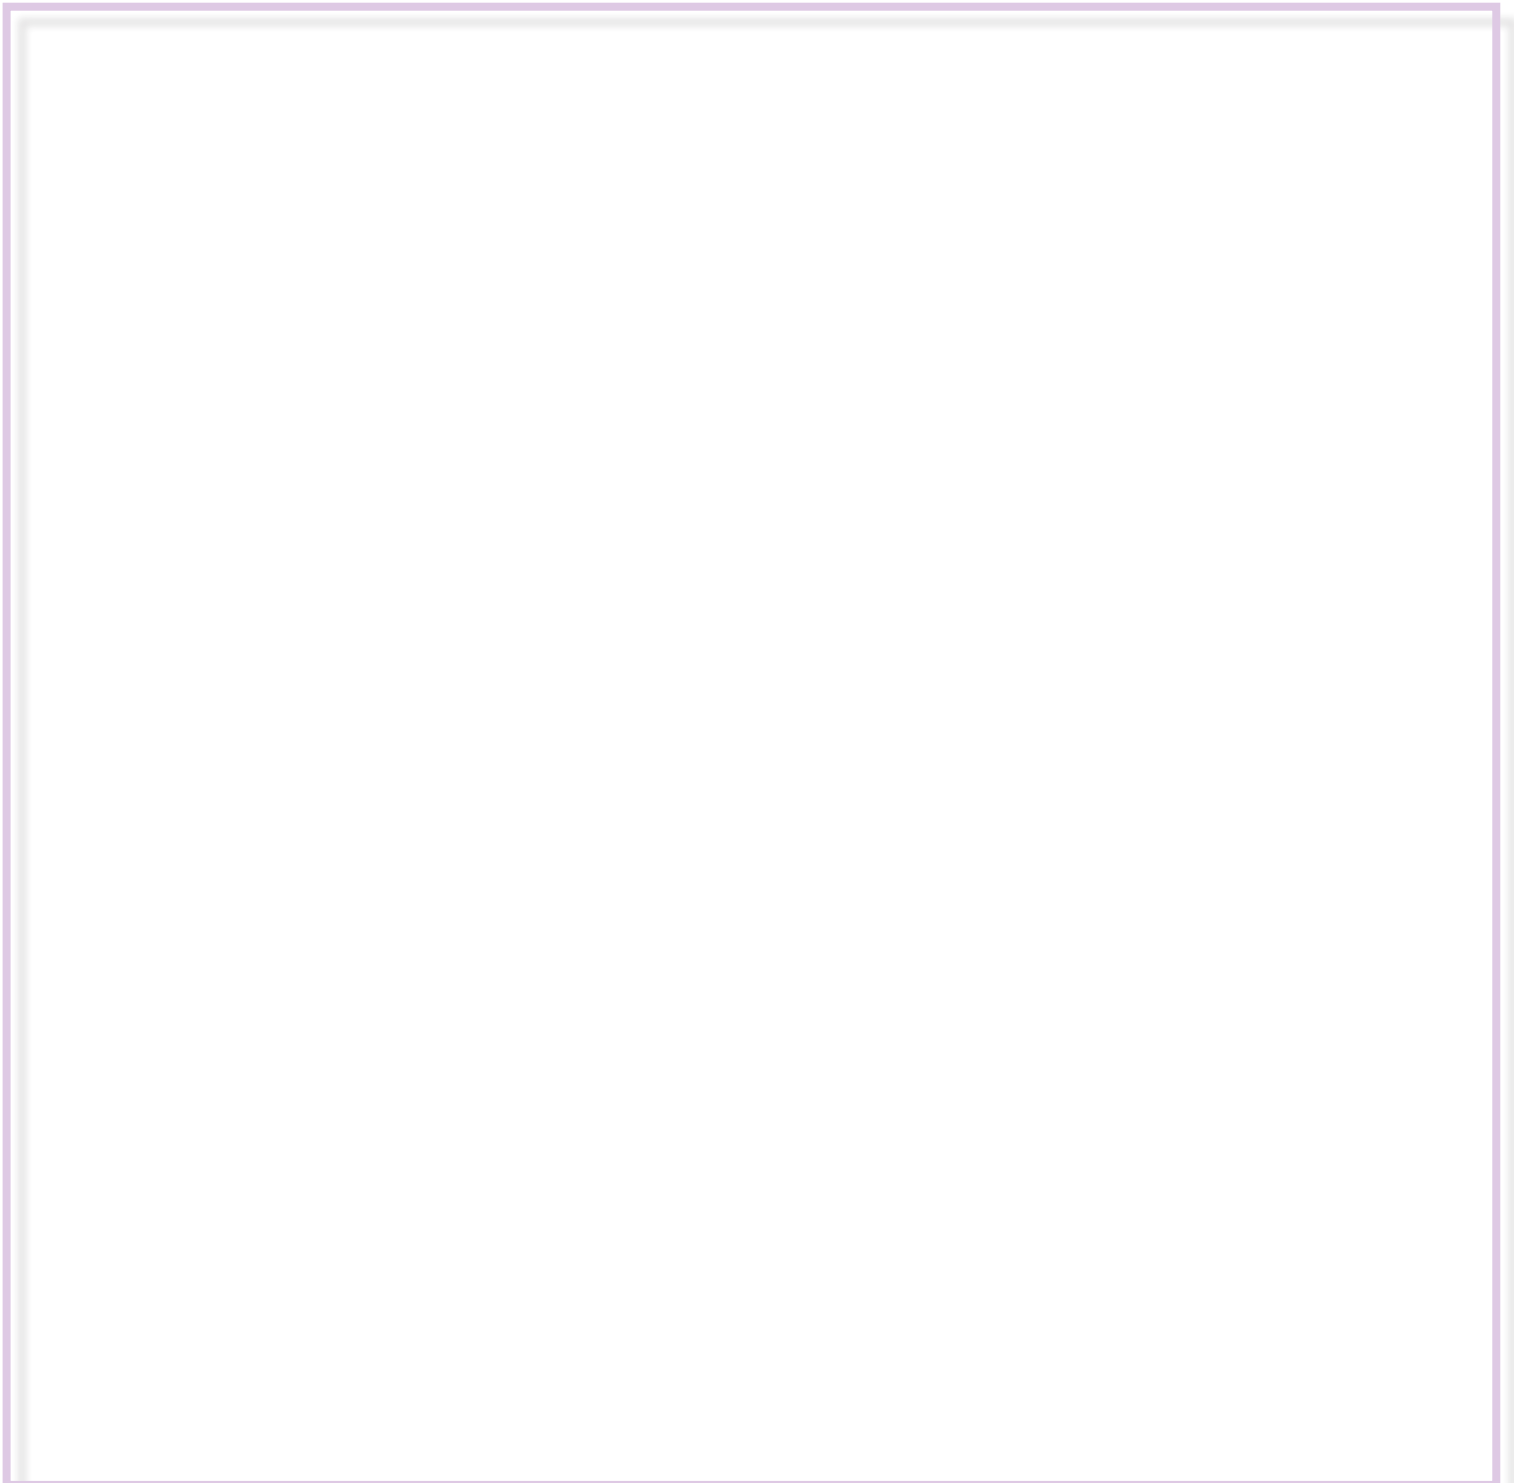

FACT

FICTION

SPREAD THE WORD!

Now you know what's true and false about fatbergs design a poster which to teach your family all about them! Remember to include the facts so they can learn something too!

FACT OR FICTION

ANSWER SHEET

True:

- 1) Used cooking oil should be left to cool and then poured into a container and put in the bin. This is a job for adults.
- 3) When our sewer pipes get blocked it causes a very unpleasant sewer flooding somewhere. This could even happen in your home!
- 4) Fatbergs are created in our sewer pipes when people put fats oils and greases down the sink.
- 5) The biggest fatberg found so far was in London. it weighed 130 tonnes and was 250 metres long.

False:

- 2) If you add washing up liquid to used cooking oil it's ok to put down the sink.
- 6) Organic cooking oils are ok to put down the sink.